

WORKPLACE RELATIONS BREAKFAST BRIEFING WITH AI GROUP

Wednesday, 8 May 2019

We would like to invite you to attend a Workplace Relations Breakfast Briefing with Ai Group on Wednesday, 8 May 2019.

With the Federal election imminent, the always contentious topic of the TWU's safe rates campaign as well as the ALP and ACTU broader proposals for workplace relation reform are poised to be major issues for the Road Transport Industry to grapple with in the months ahead.

This briefing will cover these key policy issues as well as other recent workplace relations developments that will impact on operators in the sector.

Please join us to hear from special speakers including Brent Ferguson, National Manager - Workplace Relations Policy & Advocacy at Ai Group and David Bray - Legal Practice Director for Ai Group Workplace Lawyers.

Key topics will include:

- > Recent developments in the TWU's "Safe Rates campaign"
- > Insights into the ALP's workplace relations reform agenda and its implications for the sector
- > Changes to modern awards flowing from recent Fair Work Commission proceedings
- > Key enterprise bargaining outcomes and developments for the sector
- > Update on current TWU proposed changes to the General Carriers Contract Determination

DATE:

Wednesday, 8 May 2019

TIME:

7:30am - 9:00am
Breakfast will be provided

VENUE:

Waterview in Bicentennial Park
Bicentennial Drive
Sydney Olympic Park

COST:

Member $55
Non-Member $65

REGISTER:

Please register as soon as possible to secure a seat or table.

REGISTER NOW

